

Video Relay & Video Services need to be OPEN and available to all Users who use Sign Language. These services allow Deaf consumers to communicate in their "native" language. Since the vendors providing these services are accepting "Public Monies" their services must not be restricted.